

Menu items do not have icons next to them - Metview FAQ

Problem

Menu items do not have icons next to them

Solution

On some Linux systems, the default behaviour is to not display these. It also means that the Display Window's "zoom stack" does not render properly. Try typing the following into a terminal to fix it:

```
gconftool-2 --type boolean --set /desktop/gnome/interface/menus_have_icons true
```

Related articles

- Menu items do not have icons next to them - Metview FAQ
- How do I refer to a Metview icon from the command line - Metview FAQ
- Icons appear as Notes or Binary icons - Metview FAQ