

How to cancel a request - Web API FAQ

If you wish to cancel a request please visit your job list and click on the cancel button. (If you are using the Python client note that it is not enough just to interrupt the request as it will be still active in the Web API service)

Once you have cancelled it, the request's status will become aborted.

Related articles

- Using the Python client I have killed my request or the connection was interrupted - Web API FAQ
- The message download expired appears in my Job List - Web API FAQ
- How to write more complex scripts for large sets of data - Web API FAQ
- How to cancel a request - Web API FAQ
- How to check your requests - Web API FAQ
- Definition of MARS request - Web API FAQ
- How to write a Web API request - Web API FAQ